

The simple future refers to a time later than now, and expresses facts or certainty.

The simple future is used:

1. To predict a future event:
It will rain tomorrow.
2. With I or We, to express a spontaneous decision:
I will/shall pay for the tickets by credit card.
3. To express willingness:
I'll do the washing-up.
I will/shall carry your bag for you.
4. In the negative form, to express unwillingness:
The baby won't eat his soup.
I will not leave until I've seen the manager!
5. With I in the interrogative form using "shall", to make an offer:
Shall I open the window?
6. With we in the interrogative form using "shall", to make a suggestion:
Shall we go to the cinema tonight?
7. With I in the interrogative form using "shall", to ask for advice or instructions:
What shall I tell the teacher about this?
8. With you, to give orders:
You will do exactly as I say.
9. With you in the interrogative form, to give an invitation:
Will you come to the dance with me?
